

Notes for Lesson 3

by Debbie Hodge

a magical world has different landscapes and activities

How do you decorate indoors?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

Who are you thinking about pleasing when you do the indoor decorating? What are touches that are planned with an eye toward enchanting those who enter your home?

[illegible]

How do you decorate outdoors?

What decorations are consistent from year to year?

Do you get help? Who do you want to please and how do you do it?

Do you introduce anything new over time? Specifics?

Do you have habits of storing ornaments and decorations and pulling them up and doing the decorating?

What are the community decorations you see? Are there some that you count on year after year? Which ones especially appeal to you?

How can you make a magical looking place this year?

What are the activities that make December magical?

What are the foods that make December magical?

a magical world has different rules and customs

What are your “must-dos” each year--the decorations or activities or cooking or entertaining that you consider essential aspects of your December?

What are the customs you observe during December? Do you open Advent calendars or hide an elf or get your tree up on a particular day or get new pajamas for Christmas eve?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has rounded corners and a thin green border around the edges.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

there are new possibilities in a magical world

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

This image shows a single page of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.

[illegible]

This image shows a single page from a notebook or ledger. The page is white with light blue horizontal ruling lines spaced evenly apart. There are no vertical margin lines, and the page is completely blank except for the lines. The corners of the page are rounded.